FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Subject: Cypress Officials Tour United Health Group Cypress Headquarters

Cypress Mayor Leroy Mills and the BRACE Program Committee had the opportunity to tour the recently remodeled United Health Group Cypress Headquarters in late January.

United Health Group is the City's largest employer with approximately 2,600 employees. They have multiple buildings in Cypress and the company recently completed a significant tenant improvement on their location at 5701 Katella Avenue. The improvements included an employee cafeteria, gymnasium, workstations, meeting rooms, and break areas.

United Health Group provides managed care and other health insurance products to employer groups, individuals, and Medicare beneficiaries in the United States and Guam. Its products include health insurance; health benefits administration; and indemnity insurance products, such as Medicare Supplement products offered through health maintenance organizations (HMO) and preferred provider organizations.
