Cypress Mayor Prakash Narain, M.D., Mayor Pro Tem Douglas Bailey, and the BRACE Program Committee, visited with United Health Group Regional CEO, Mr. David Anderson on Wednesday, August 11th at the United Health Group facilities located at 5995 Plaza Drive in Cypress.

United Health Group is the City's largest employer with approximately 2,600 employees. They have multiple buildings in Cypress and the company is in the process of completing a significant tenant improvement on their location at 5701 Katella Avenue. When the Katella Avenue building improvements are completed, United Health Group plans to relocate the majority of their executive team to this location and continue to grow their campus here in the City of Cypress.

United Health Group provides managed care and other health insurance products to employer groups, individuals, and Medicare beneficiaries in the United States and Guam. Its products include health insurance; health benefits administration; and indemnity insurance products, such as Medicare Supplement products offered through health maintenance organizations (HMO) and preferred provider organizations.

The company also offers various specialty managed care products and services as a supplement to its basic commercial and senior medical plans or as stand-alone products. Its specialty managed care products include pharmacy benefit management (PBM) services, behavioral health services, group life and health insurance, and dental and vision benefit plans.
