OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF POLICE

April 7, 2010

Chief Mark Yokoyama
Cypress Police Department
5275 Orange Avenue
Cypress, CA 90630

Dear Chief Yokoyama:

On Easter Sunday night, April 4, 2010, the Santa Ana Police Department conducted a major enforcement effort on Bristol Street, which is typically a site over run with cruisers and spectators from First Street to MacArthur Boulevard. The enforcement effort was a proactive approach to a long-standing problem and outside agency assistance was requested.

Our Traffic Division Commander, Doug McGeachy, informed me that Sgt. Bob Cote and Officers Greg Faessel and Eric Carlson from the Cypress Police Department assisted in the evening's operation. He also said the officers took it upon themselves to help in any way, were an integral part of the entire operation, and were certainly a big part of the reason for its success.

I sincerely appreciate their diligence and dedication to not only the Traffic Division's enforcement effort but to the entire Department as well. Please offer my sincere thanks to the Officers for their willingness to assist.

Sincerely,

PAUL M. WALTERS
Chief of Police
